

FREE MINDS

Presents

"MENTAL HEALTH: A DIALOGUE"

Goal: In honor of National Mental Health Awareness Week, we at Free Minds want to engage the entire USC community in a campus-wide discussion on mental illness and the quality and effectiveness of the mental health resources available to students on and off campus.

All USC students are invited and highly encouraged to participate in the discussion and shape the future of USC's mental health care system!

Tuesday October 8th | 7:30-9:00pm

Doors open at 7pm

Light reception will be provided

RSVP @ FB Page:
Free Minds United - SC Chapter

Featuring panelists:

Dr. Ilene Rosenstein Director for the Engemann Student Health Center- Counseling

Christina Davis Director for Residential Education

Grant Burlew and Emily Sandoval Assistant Directors for Residential Education

Officer Sabrina Brown USC Department of Public Safety

Dr. Lynette Merriman Assistant Provost for Student Affairs, Support and Advocacy

Kathleen Piché Public Affairs Director for the LA County Department of Mental Health

Sandri Kramer Director for the Didi Hirsch Suicide Prevention Center Crisis Hotline

Gould School of Law

Dr. Elyn Saks Orrin B. Evans Professor of Law, Psychology, and Psychiatry and the Behavioral Sciences at the University of Southern California

Keck School of Medicine

Dr. David Baron Professor of Clinical and Vice Chair and Chief Psychiatric Services for Keck Hospital of USC and Norris Comprehensive Center and Assistant Dean, Global Relations

With a special feature from mental health documentarian and USC Film School graduate Jeremy Royce

USC